

Women's History Month: Women's Soccer Players Score a Goal

Description of the Activity: Recently, the U.S. Women's Soccer Team settled their class action lawsuit for equal pay against the U.S. Soccer Federation. Students will be provided reference material (video, article) and asked to reflect on the gender pay equality.

In this activity, you will respond to three (3) prompts/questions after reviewing the reference material. The response to each of the three (3) prompts/questions is required to be at least 3-4 sentences in length in order to earn SSL credit.

How SSL Hours Are Earned: Complete the activity according to the below instructions and earn one (1) SSL hour.

Deadline for this activity is: Saturday, April 30, 2022

- 4) Student's email address (Do NOT use your MCPS student email address. If you do not have a personal email, provide the email address of your parent/guardian. We need and email address to send your SSL form.)
- 5) Watch the video about the U.S. Women's Soccer Team lawsuit.
- 6) Read the article about the gender pay gap.
- 7) Answer the following three (3) questions:
 - a) Question One: What is gender pay equality?
 - b) Question Two: Hypothetical: A man is named as the President of a prestigious company. A woman is named as the Vice President of the same company. Their duties are the same and the female earns a higher salary than the man. When you think about gender pay equality, does it matter that the woman doesn't have the same title as the man or is the fact that she earns a higher salary than the man enough?

- c) Question Three: After learning about gender pay equality, has your thinking changed about how individuals are treated in your school, community, world? Why or why not? How will you inspire others to think about and make positive changes to accomplish equal treatment of all individuals?
